

Typesetting

- composing text in a two dimensional space
- finding correct fitness for purpose
- using tools to build style and layout

Publication Design

- considering legacy methods used for centuries
- considering commercial constraints in publishing
- the application of established standards