to qđ est iuxta ihericho: et omnis comi-tatus eius diffugit ab eo. Longꝫ com-prehendissent regem adduxerunt eum ad regem babilonis in reblatha que est in terra emach: et locutus est ad eū iudicia. Et ingulauit rex babilonis filios sedechie in oculis eius: sed et o-mnes principes iuda occidit in rebla-tha. Et oculos sedechie reuit: et vinxit eum in compedibus. Et adduxit eū rex babilonis in babilonem: et posuit eū in domo carceris usq; ad diē mortis eius. In mēse autē quinto decima mē-sis ipse est annus decimus nonꝫ nabu-chodonosor regis babilonis: venit nabuzardan princeps milie qui sta-bat coram rege babilonis in iherusalem: et incendit domū domini et domū regis et omnes domꝫ iherusale et omne domū magnā igne combussit: et to-tum murū iherusalem per circuitū destruxit cunctus exercitus caldeoꝝ qui e-rat cum magistro milie. De paupri-bus autē populi et de reliquo vulgo quod remanserat in ciuitate et de perfugis qđ transfugerant ad regem babilonis et ceteros de multitudine: transtulit nabuzardan princeps milie: de paupribus vero terre reliquit nabuzardan princeps milie vinitores et agricolas.
Columnas quoq; et eas que erant in domo domini et balneo et mare et ceterum quod erat in domo domini confregerunt caldeis: et tulērūt omne eoꝝ in babilonē. Et lectos et ceteras et psalterea et kalas et mortariola et oīa vasa

Et fuerūt malagranata nonaginta depēdētia: et omnia malagranata centum reticulis circūdabant. Et tulit magister milie saraiam sacerdotem primum: et sophoniam sacerdotē secundū:
et ceteros custodes vestibuli. Et de ciuitate tulit eunuchū unū qđ erat ppositꝫ sup viros bellatores: et septē viros de hꝫ qđ videbāt faciem regis qđ inuēti sūt in ciui-tate: et scribā principē milie qđ pbatat tyrones: et sexaginta viros de populo terre qui inuēti sūt in medio ciuitatis. Tulit autē eos nabuzardan magister milie:
et duxit eos ad regē babilonis in rebla-tha. Et posuit eos rex babilonis: et inter-fecit eos in reblatha in terra emach. Et translatꝫ ē iuda de ita sua. Qđ ē ipse quē translulit nabuchodonosor anno septio: iudeos tria milia et viginti. In anno octauo nō nabuchodonosor translulit de iherusalem aīas odigēta sexaginta duas.

In anno vicesimo tertio nabuchodonosor transtulit nabuzardan magister milie animas iudeoꝝ septingentas quadraginta quinq;. Omnes ergo anime: quatuor milia sexcentę. Et factum est in tricesimo septimo anno tras-must follow them, and go whither so many great orators, so many venerable sages, (Heraclitus, Pythagoras, Socrates,) so many heroes of ancient times, so many generals and kings of later ages, have gone before us.

Add to these, Eudoxus, Hipparchus, Archimedes, and other mathematicians of acute and sublime genius, of unwearied application, of various knowledge, and proud of their discoveries. Nay, those facetious gentlemen, who, like Menippus, made a jest of the frail and transitory state of human life: Consider, I say, that all these different characters are long since consigned to the gloomy mansions of the dead. And, indeed, what evil are they sensible of in their tombs? or what evil do they suffer, whose very names are buried in oblivion?

In short, there is nothing here much worth our attention, but to act on all occasions with a regard to truth and justice, and to live peaceably even with those who act with fraud and injustice.

42. When you would revive your spirits, recollect the virtues and good qualities of

of your friends and acquaintance: the diligence and attention of one; the modesty of another; the generosity of a third, and so on. For nothing is more soothing to the imagination, than that we are surrounded by friends in whom an assemblage of those good qualities displays itself. These then you should always retain in your memory, for your consolation and refreshment.

43. As you do not complain that you weigh only ten stone, suppose, instead of twenty, you have no more reason to be dissatisfied that your life is limited to a certain number of years and not further extended. As you are content with the dimensions of your person, you ought to be so with the space of life which is allotted you.

44. Let us, if we can, persuade others to be just and reasonable. But however they act, let us do what reason and justice require. If, indeed, any one should by force prevent your acting as you wish to do, you may at least have recourse to patience and equanimity; and thus let one virtue supply the place of another. And remember, that you undertake
